Editorial

Leichhardt Tigers' six-match unbeaten run in the Super League came to an end when it slumped to a 2-0 home defeat by Macarthur Rams at Lambert Park.

Goals by David Reid and Allan Lindley in the second half were enough to see the Rams record their fifth win of the season, lifting them back into the top five.

The loss has seen the Tigers slip five points adrift of league leaders Parramatta Eagles, who recorded a comfortable 4-1 win over the John Doyle-coached Sydney United at Melita Stadium.

A missed penalty goal in the 12th minute by Tigers John Buonavoglia was a sign of things to come for Leichhardt as they struggled to break through a highly competitive Rams defence.

Their luck was nowhere to be found soon after halftime when Martin Driene's brilliant free kick struck the cross bar and soon after it was Reid who put the Rams ahead.

His brilliant shot struck the post but the rebound hit Tigers' keeper Ante Covic on the head and the ball bouncing back into the goal.

Leichhardt pushed forward in numbers but Macarthur always looked dangerous on the fast break.

At Melita Stadium it was striker Saso Petrovski who stole the show with four goals in Parramatta's victory.

However it was Gabriel Mendez who set up the win having a hand in three of the goals, while throughout the game he was a constant torment to the United defence with his skills and precision passes.

In another upset Central Coast scored an upset 4-1 victory over Bankstown City Lions at Jensen Park, Canterbury Marrickville tipped out St George Saints 2-1 at St George Stadium.

The Sutherland Sharks v Bonnyrigg White Eagles match set down for Seymour Shaw had to be postponed because of the weather.

Meanwhile Mt Pritchard have strengthened their first team squad with the signing of Lee Sterrey as coach and Zeljko Babic on loan from Marconi for the rest of the season.

On The Road to the title

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE vs SUTHERLAND SHARKS

The Berries are back on track after winning last weekend against St. George at St. George Stadium. After two heavy defeats it was important that they got the win and keep their hopes of a semi final berth alive. While it was a grafting win the pleasing aspect for coach John Xipolitas would have been the defensive effort of his side especially after going down a goal early. Having conceded 10 in the previous two games they hardly allowed the Saints any room in attack. Sutherland cannot take a trick at the moment, with their match against Bonnyrigg called off last weekend. With two losses on the trot and only two wins for the season, the last thing they needed was a weekend off. It could help a number of players however recover from niggling injuries, which has plagued the Sharks season to date. The result of this match, could depend if the Sharks play the game this week against Bonnyrigg as has been indicated. RECORD: They have met on 20 occasions at Canterbury with the Sharks winning nine games, Canterbury seven and four have been drawn. Last season, Sutherland won comprehensively 4-1.

CONCLUSION: Grant Bard and Paul Donnelly's return will be welcomed back for the Sharks. Canterbury have proved tough to beat at Henson Park but I can sense a draw in this one.

BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS vs BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS

Fierce rivals over the last few years and nothing will change in this game especially as the Demons scored a decisive win in the opening match this year. On that performance many said the Demons would win the competition but things have not gone exactly to plan. However they are entrenched in the five and if they get their act together could put the pressure on Parramatta. Bankstown have been hot and cold so far. One week they are good, the next they get beaten quite easily. Against a struggling Central Coast side you would expect them to win at home but capitulated to lose 4-1 after leading 1-0. Coach David Mijalkov has been worried about his sides lack of a regular scoring strike force but it was his defence that let him down last weekend and they will need to lift against a very capable Demons attack. Mijalkov will probably team new signings Scott Baillie and Nick Bosevski in attack for the first time.

RECORD: Have met on six occasions at the Gabbie, with the Demons leading 3-2 and one draw. Blacktown is unbeaten in its last three starts at home against the Lions, the last two being wins.

CONCLUSION: With only two points separating the sides, it should be a very even game. The Demons have won three of their four home games and look hard to beat though.

MACARTHUR RAMS vs CENTRAL COAST

Macarthur proved they are a side to be reckoned with this year with a very good 2-0 win over Leichhardt at the weekend. After an enforced three week layoff with their last two matches called off, most would have expected the Tigers to be too strong but they fought hard and scored two good goals on the break after the break. David Reid continues to be a real find this year and had a great game against the Tigers. They will however be without captain David Hayes and Scott Houghton who tore his hamstring last weekend. Are the Coasties back on track. Were at good odds to be in the five but like Sutherland have struggled since the pre-season especially where it counts in front of goal. But last weekend they rediscovered the scoring touch with a very convincing 4-1 win. The good news for coach Allan Bourke was Paul Roberts and Nathan Byrn finding the net after lean times and he will hoping they get some confidence back. That win has seen them move back into top five contention.

RECORD: Have met only the once at Lynwood Park, with the Coasties winning 1-0 last year. Macarthur did win the first round clash earlier this year by the same scoreline at Pluim Park.

CONCLUSION: Shaping as a highly entertaining clash between two good sides that like to play attacking soccer. Fans should get their monies worth but at home and on their performance against Leichhardt, you have to fancy the Rams.

Saso Petrovski scored all four of Parramatta's goals against Sydney United.

SYDNEY UNITED vs ST, GEORGE SAINTS

The pressure is on these two sides for a win in this match. A loss would not only end any finals hopes but it could also determine who gets wooden spoon for this year as they are last and second last respectively. United though will probably be strengthened with all NSL commitments now completed. They will pick up quite a few players from their Youth League team over the next few weeks and this should give them a push up the table. The Saints have now lost four in a row and are looking down the barrel. Have not won since Round 2 and need to win games fast. Had a run of draws earlier on but in this league, wins are so vital and even more so for them now.

RECORD: Have met on 16 occasions at United. United have won four, St. George nine and three games have been drawn. Of these matches United have won the last two by three goal margins.

CONCLUSION: Is a must win game for both sides. I wouldn't expect too many goals in this game as both have struggled in this department all season. But with some new faces and the home ground advantage, United should prevail.

LEICHHARDT TIGERS vs PARRAMATTA EAGLES

Top of the table clash but some of the gloss has been taken away from it after Leichhardt's defeat at the hands of Macarthur last weekend. The gap between the two has now opened up to five points and it is now a case of the Tigers have to win this one to stay in touch for the premiership race. It is hard to imagine too many other sides taking points off the Eagles, especially as they are in such great form at the moment. They have won four games on the trot and in that time have scored 15 goals. There is just no weak link in their side as shown by the best attack and defence records in the league. Meanwhile the momentum has fallen away for the Tigers are winning five games straight. A 0-0 draw against Central Coast and the loss to Macarthur, both at home, were average performances. Could not match the Rams enthusiasm and in attack lacked spark and imagination around the 18 yard box. With a big promotion planned for this game by the Tigers for some weeks, maybe the players minds have been on this game and they let their guard down.

RECORD: Have met on six occasions at Lambert Park, with the Tigers winning three and the Eagles twice. In the corresponding game last season the Eagles won 4-0 with Malcolm Meilak getting a hat-trick.

CONCLUSION: Parramatta have a big incentive as they could put one hand on the premiership trophy by winning this game and a couple of results go their way. The Tigers will no doubt lift for this game as a big crowd is expected. But the Eagles are in form and have a greater flair in attack which should get them home.

RAMS ECLIPSE TIGERS

Macarthur Rams overcame a three week break from action to eclipse second place Leichhardt Tigers 2-0 at Lambert Park.

The victory has certainly added credibility to their claim as a serious finals contender this year.

Most would have expected the six game unbeaten Tigers to prove too strong for the Rams, who have had their last two matches called off due to wet weather. But it was the Rams who looked the more lively and enthusiastic and fully deserved the three points and a place back in the five with those two games still in hand.

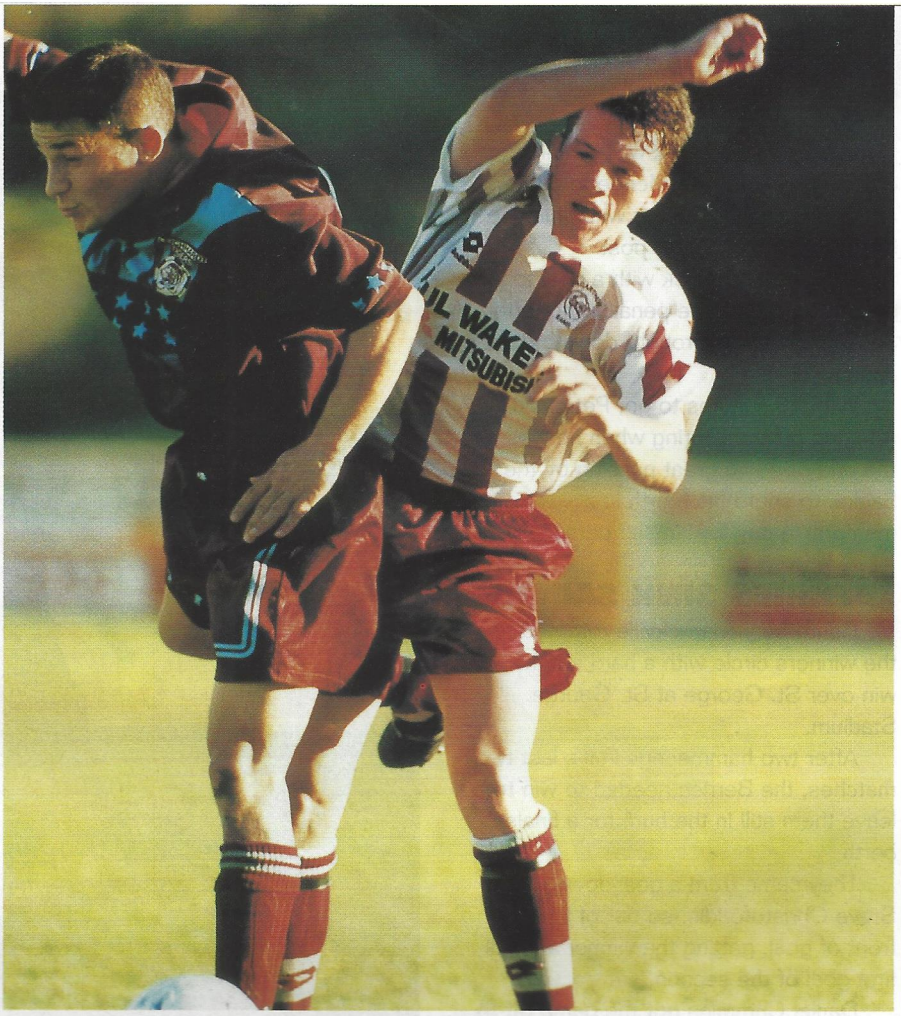
One could sense it wasn't going to be the Tigers day once Rams reserve keeper Chris Duffett saved John Buonavoglia's spot kick in the 12th minute. The save seemed to inspire the Rams and in the process deflate the Tigers who looked listless and void of ideas in attack.

Goals to firstly David Reid and then Alan Lindley both in the second half secured the win, the Rams fifth in only nine games.

After a cautious start by both sides, The Tigers were awarded a dubious penalty after Buonavoglia was tripped by Ben Wright on the edge of the penalty area. The little midfielder struck his spot kick well but Duffett dived full stretch to his left to turn it away for a corner.

Duffett, replacing the injured David Hayes, has himself just returned from sick list after a bout of glandular fever kept him sidelined since the start of the season.

The Rams looked particularly dangerous on the break with Simon Fedele and Reid quick to break forward. Fedele was first the test Tigers keeper



John Buonavoglia (Tigers) and Ben Wright battle for possession.

Ante Covic with an angled drive that Covic saved down low.

A mistake by Duffett in the 30th minute, nearly led to a goal for Eric Williams but the ball travelled agonisingly wide of the post.

The Tigers luck was also out soon after the break when Martin Driene's free kick hit the crossbar with Duffett well beaten.

Then in the 57th minute, Reid struck the killer blow in bizarre circumstances. A quick break found him free on the left and his curling effort hit the post but went in after it had rebounded off Covic's head.

Play now went from end to end but it was another breakaway in the 80th minute, with Rod Pena laying the perfect cross to Alan Lindley who neatly guided his header past Covic for the sealer.

Leichhardt: Covic, Driene, Pettenon, Macolino (Bourke), Smith (Talcevski), Williams (Bideau), Buonavoglia, Juric, Bazdaric, Shipley, Koch.

Macarthur: Duffett, Wright, Sweeney, Lord, Houghton (Hayward), Reid (Clune), Fedele, Lindley, Green, Rayner, Macerola (Pena).

PETROVSKI NETS FOUR

Saso Petrovski netted all his sides four goals as Parramatta Eagles cruised to a 4-1 win over Sydney United at Melita Stadium.

After giving the Eagles a half time lead, Petrovski then capitalised on some outstanding play by Gabriel Mendez in particular to notch three more goals which lifted to equal top of the goalscorers list.

The win has also cleared Parramatta to five points in front and are on song for the premiership.

Petrovski's first goal came after 35 minutes when he pounced on the loose ball after Tom Miletic could only block David Harding's well struck volley.

The Eagles should have taken a two goal lead before the break when Steve Karavatakis was brought down in the box but his penalty kick was blasted high over the bar.

Petrovski scored his second minutes after the break with a delightful glancing header from Mendez's corner and then had his hat-trick when his shot beat Miletic at the near post.

United struck back with a goal to Darko Zoric from the penalty spot after Joel Griffiths was brought down by Jason Holmes.

With 15 minutes to go, Petrovski rounded off the scoring when he was on the end of some great passing by the Eagles to score his fourth in a memorable day for himself personally.

BERRIES SINK SAINTS

Canterbury Marrickville returned to the winners circle with a hard fought 2-1 win over St. George at St. George Stadium.

After two hammerings in it's last two matches, the Berries needed to win to leave them still in the hunt for a finals berth.

They came from a goal down with Steve Christoforidis, so out of touch in front of goal, getting the winner and his first goal of the season.

Daniel Cummins got the game off to a bright start from the first serious attack on goal, with a thunderous shot from a corner to give the Saints the lead.

However that goal was quickly erased by Canterbury when they scored from a corner kick, Matthew Percy pouncing on a dropped ball by Saints keeper Jose Bello-Amigo.

Chances were far and few, with Zoran Ilic and Matthew Shepherd both denied goals by Bello-Amigo while Alex Araujo shaved the outside of the post with a shot for St. George and Cummins nearly had a second soon after the break but was denied by the crossbar.

Canterbury's winner came 20 minutes into the second stanza shooting past substitute Saints keeper Robert Graskoski from point blank range after good work by Jose Mendes.

St. George: Bello-Amigo (Graskoski), O'Shea, Scotti, Carter, Dauzacker, J Pillemer, Totaro (M Pillemer), Cummins, Araujo, Martinez (Ellul), Holmes.

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn (Georgallis), Hantzis, Shepherd, Percy, Mendes, Jerkovic, Christoforidis, Tsigolis, Soler (Nikas), Ilic (Angelo Markopoulos).

Leichhardt defender Troy Shipley is a study of concentration.

LADY LUCK SHINES ON COASTIES

Central Coast finally found the luck in front of goals that has deserted them in recent matches, with a 4-1 win over Bankstown City Lions at Jensen Park.

It was only the third win of the year for the Coasties and the first since beating Bankstown in Round 6 up at Pluim Park.

However they had to come from goal down after Steve Eagleton put the Lions in front after 20 minutes with a terrific low drive that had David Fitzsimmons well beaten.

But with Bankstown still in celebration mood, Paul Roberts struck his first goal of the season to have them on level terms.

Further efforts by Damien Brown and Matthew Heighway that had goals written all over them were well saved by Tony Kostadinovski in Bankstown's goal.

Twenty minutes into the second half, Brown broke the deadlock, capitalising on a defensive mix up to slide his shot past Kostadinovski.

Six minutes later, substitute striker Nathan Byrn picked up a great through ball by Craig Thompson and beat Kostadinovski to give the Coasties a 3-1 lead.

With only minutes to go and the Coasties looking for more goals, Tony Josevski in attempting to head clear put it into his own net for the final result.

Bankstown: Kostadinovski, T Josevski, Boskovski, C Celik (K Josevski), Gomez, Eagleton (Hawrysuik), Todoroski, Van Bentum, Zafirov (Bosevski), Luksic, Younis.

Coasties: Fitzsimmons, Moss, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Preston, Thompson, Heighway (Byrn), Knight, Clarke, Roberts (Norman)

Teenage

Super Youth League Under 15 leaders Blacktown City Demons.

Blacktown City Demons made the long journey across town to Cromer Park and came away with three good wins against the Warringah Dolphins.

The Demons best result came in the under 15s - 4-0 which lifted the side to the top of the ladder.

Other results which favoured Blacktown City was in the 13s, and 16s, with only the under 14s picking up maximum points for the Dolphins.

Adamstown Rosebud made the long journey south from Newcastle to take on Sydney United at Croatia Park for mixed results.

The Buds thrashed United 5-0 in the 13s, lost by the odd goal in the 14s, picked up three valuable points in the 15s and settled on a share of the points in the 16s.

The win by the under 15s lifted Rosebud off the bottom of the table.

Southern Districts got the Sutherland Sharks at Marconi No 2, winning both the 14 and under 16 grades handsomely.

In other Round 13 results the points were shared at Pluim Park and Brandon Park, Wollongong where the Wolf pack picked up maximum points in the 13s and 16s against visiting Marconi.

Weather again played havoc with the weekend's round of matches with the big clash between Sydney Olympic and Parramatta Eagles and the Macarthur Rams and Illawarra Lions postponed.

In Division One Eastern Suburbs picked up maximum points at the expense of visiting Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Camdenville Oval.

A nil-all result at Jensen Park in the under 16s robbed the Bankstown Association from making a clean sweep of Southern Branch.

It was a similar story at the Gabbie Stadium where Leichhardt Tigers clearly stamped their authority over Blacktown Association in three of the four age divisions.

AC United picked up six valuable points over the Rockdale City Suns at Abruzzi Field, while CSI Schofields edged out Penrith Panthers 10-1.

Granville and Kuringai Associations had a close tussle all day before the visitors edged out Granville at Rydalmere Park.

The big winner in Division 2 was Canterbury Association in the local derby against Stanmore Hawks, winning the 13s, 14s and the 16s, dropping just two points in a 2-all draw in the under 15s.

St Johns Park, Hills United and Mt Druitt Town Rangers all picked up points at the expense Hawkesbury City, Springwood and Parramatta City.

The wet weather at the weekend saw the match set down at Magadala Rd Park between Ryde City and macquarie Sports postponed.

Announcing the signing the previous day of new coach Lee Sterrey and star striker Sean Babic on loan from Marconi, Mount Pritchard president Glen Ingle also made it clear that Darren locca, their other high profile team member, had been warned to lift his own performances.

The chunky former Marconi star could not have responded more quickly for he had his Mounties in front of home side Fairfield Bulls within two minutes after a header from Babic had cannoned off the post into his path in front of goal, leaving him to bundle the ball over the line.

While Babic continued to impress with his skill and all round contributions leading the attack alongside Greg Baldock, whose well flighted cross from the right had led to the all important header, the deeper lying locca had a frustrating afternoon, thereafter, squandering a host of other chances.

Towards the end of a game Fairfield rarely looked like winning Mounties found themselves under pressure when two were given their marching orders for use of foul language.

With extra defenders called on as substitutes there was little chance of further goals for the visitors and Fairfield nearly snatched an equaliser when a shot from Sasha Talevski struck the angle of the upright and then was cleared to safety.

Mt Pritchard have Lee Sterrey for the rest of the year, with Vic Dalgleish continuing as Director of Coaching.

MINOTAURS TAKEN OUT BY AUBURN

The enigmatic Auburn side, almost beaten at home seven days earlier by last placed West Wanderers, came out and beat table-topping Hurstville Minotaurs 3-1 at Mona Park, a ground where they had not only lost a Waratah Cup game 3-2 to this same Minotaurs, but failed to win on in their last four matches there this season.

Minotaurs were long overdue for a fall and Auburn's scoring ability was always going to help them against a defence which has rarely been truly tested this term.

Going into the game the Minotaurs had only conceded 6 goals in 18 matches, but they had reckoned without the scoring prowess of Huseyin Beyhan whose hat trick lifted his own tally for the season to 13.

The biggest factor of all, perhaps, was the news that Auburn had changed coaches on Tuesday night and that the man who was with them at the tail end of last year, Jae Wang, was back in charge.

Wang managed to coax Oscan Celic to join him as well as another old face in Gurkan Tasdemir and the inclusion of Nabil Codmani, who was in great touch, was a big boost as well.

Wang may play himself in future games, but for the moment his influence was there for all to see.

Minotaurs came back when in the 80th minute Auburn goalie Haydar Arslan was unable to claim a cross due to the direct sun and Tony Mihaljevic headed home from close range.

PENRITH DEAL WITH WESTS

In a game transferred from Ernie Smith Reserve on the Saturday to Cook Park the next day Penrith got the result they needed when they beat West Wanderers 2-0, new recruit Darren Read once more coming up with the goals.

Read has scored all four for his side in their two most recent games and has added some punch to the attack.

This was no walk over, though, Wests dominating the game from start to finish, but being unable to deliver in front of goal.

Read took his goals well and the Penrith defence held up well, but the midfield was unable to get a grip on the game and the hungrier Wests held sway throughout.

BELMORE SEND RYDE ON THEIR WAY

Two unlikely goals gave visiting Ryde City an improbable victory at Blick Oval over a stunned Belmore Hercules who at one stage looked capable of winning with something to spare.

The game went ahead after a plea to Canterbury council by the host club on the morning of the game when at first it seemed it might be called off.

In near perfect conditions which had everyone scratching their heads about the postponed lower grade games, Belmore began stylishly and were in front after 31 minutes.

Steve Lombardo made strides down the right and put over a left footed inswinging cross which Jim Melissourgos got to first at the near post to find the net with an excellent glancing header.

Lombardo, a former Ryde player, was in good touch and caused some concern with his tricky wing play.

Ryde had their chances which were squandered by the front runners, with Alf Cirino the main culprit.

Matthew Borg was always attended by a throng of defenders, yet was able to lay on passes for others which were not used to advantage.

Jim Boudaher toiled well in a deeper lying role and was instrumental in the equaliser which came when a Paul Watkins cross, intended for Boudaher, was despatched back towards goal by John Cosentino, under pressure, not realising that his keeper Angelo Rodic was patrolling at the edge of his area.

With Boudaher and three defenders giving chase the ball landed in the back of an open net.

Ryde grew in confidence after this and John McKie clipped just over the bar, while Boudaher shot narrowly wide within minutes of the goal being scored.

GREYSTANES GO WELL AT NINEVEH

In their first outing at Nineveh Field Greystanes showed their new found confidence was still with them by beating Warringah 4-1. Kenny Bridge atoned for his penalty miss the previous week by being on the spot to drive the ball in low from the edge of the area in the 3rd minute after the defence had headed the ball out under some pressure.

A long ball into the box allowed Steve Butcher to get in behind the Greystanes defence and head home the equaliser for the Dolphins in the15th minute.

Mick Schofield restored the lead for the 'home' side when he got a second stab at goal after a Mark Racker run down the left flank and pinpoint cross had seen the first shot pushed away by Warringah custodian Roy Papalia.

A long ball forward by Bridge sent substitute Darren Peters on his way in the 83rd for Peters to go past the last defender and the keeper to make it three.

ROCKDALE PUSH HILLS OVER

Hot property Spase Najdoski set the scene for the Suns' 5-2 win over Hills United at Banksia.

Najdoski scored his first after 38 seconds when Toni Salev had released the ball to him quickly and seen the ace Macedonian striker go on to smash the ball low into the right corner of Terry Ides' net.

Safet Catovic laid on a pass for Najdoski to chip the ball over the keeper and in of the underside of the bar in the 10th and then the hat trick was posted in the 33rd from a cross by newly appointed captain Grant McDonald.

Najdoski made it four from a free kick which deflected in off the wall in the 42nd and just before the break Nick Markovski put Rockdale 5-1 up with an opportunist goal after shots by Catovic and Mohammed Sabra had been blocked.

Darren Moss put away a late penalty for Hills after McDonald had been ruled as having handled on the line.

BATHURST DOUBLE OVER STANMORE

Bathurst continued their sensational run of results to down close rivals Stanmore 4-1 and thus complete a double over the inner-Sydney suburban side.

But once more they had to come from a goal down in the 15th minute to do it.

Eddie Briscoe put the Hawks ahead with a clever piece of work, getting in his shot when a pass to Jason Oldridge looked the likely option, thus wrong footing the Bathurst defenders.

The home side were level before long when new signing Archie Thompson came off the bench to latch onto a Shaun Dixon cross which had got the ball in behind the Stanmore defence.

Thompson, who played with Bathurst last season and has been in the Ericsson Cup squad at Gippsland Falcons, is on loan from the Victorian club until early in July.
Bathurst had to wait until the 67th for Scott Mutton to put them In front, but saw Jason Oldridge miss a good chance for Stanmore before that.
Mark Rooke headed bravely past Paul Kyprianou in the 72nd after arriving late in the goalmouth to claim a high cross, copping a gashed head in the process.
A volley from Gavin Thomas wrapped it up for Bathurst for their ninth win in the last ten outings, Adrian Renike's 86th minute cross doing the damage after excellent spadework by Thompson and an on song Tony Judge.
Briscoe managed to steer a shot wide when faced by the keeper when the score was 3-1, which might have given Bathurst some problems had he been on target.

EASTERN SUBURBS EARN A POINT

After a lapse of form which saw the side slip from 2nd to 5th Eastern Suburbs took their first point in May by holding a much improved Illawarra Lions outfit 0-0 at Wentworth Park.
Easts played some good soccer as did their opponents and had a Gerry Gomez goal disallowed for offside.
Craig Sharpley, in his second game after signing from Newcastle, hit the bar and shots from Grant Lee and Mick Daniels were cleared off the line.
Matthew Dihm also missed from 12 yards with the goal at his mercy.
Sasha Dimoski and Richard Lloyd had strong games for the Lions who were worthy opponents for Easts whose coach Joe Watson felt did all he could have asked of them, but without the desired result.

BRIEF WEEKEND PREVIEW

Four Saturday games this week with some tight contests likely.
Belmore entertain Greystanes at Blick Oval and I fancy the visitors to put in a bold bid for points.
Auburn are out to avenge a 6-0 drubbing by Ryde in their first meeting and there is every reason toexpect that they can do it, after last weekend's result.
Minotaurs should be able to fend off Penrith at Hurstville Oval, while West Wanderers will need to be at their top to stop Bathurst leaving Sydney with yet another away win from Hajduk Stadium.
Sunday brings Rockdale to Cook Park to face Mount Pritchard, one form-side and another relatively out-of-form side meeting in a game which could throw a spanner in the works of the confident visitors.
Hills tackle improvers Illawarra Lions at Fred Caterson, the locals looking for another three points, but wary of the new look southern visitors .

Eastern Suburbs can beat Warringah at Wentworth Park on their best form, but have they left that behind them? The Dolphins are sore from the Greystanes defeat and could bounce back.
Stanmore and Fairfield should provide a feast of action at Arlington Oval, with the home side fancied strongly in a game with high scoring potential.

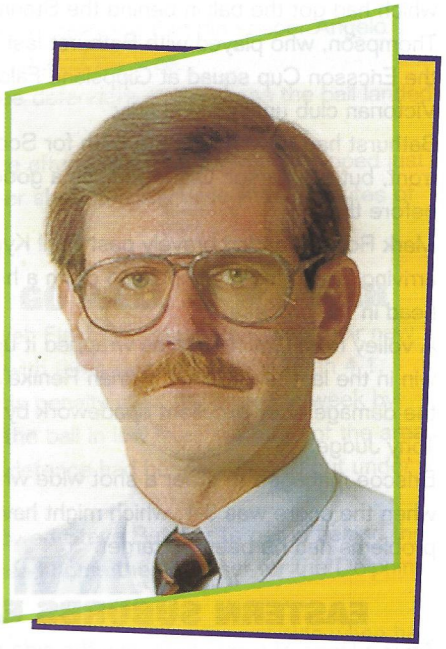
The National League

PETER KOGOY LOOKS AT THE GRAND FINAL



STRIKERS MAKE NSL HISTORY

Frank Farina may be headed for post-season surgery after defying severe pain to score an inspirational goal for Brisbane in its 2-0 grand final win against Sydney United last Sunday.

Farina's grand final celebrations may yet be interrupted by a recautionary arthroscopy.

National coach Terry Venables said after Brisbane's history-making win at Suncorp Stadium in front of a record crowd of 40,446 that Farina would be in his Socceroo squad if he was available.

Farina, who missed Brisbane's return semi-final in Sydney against United and waged a long personal battle to get onto the field for the final, slotted the game-breaking goal in the 47th minute of the grand final.

But had it been any game other than a grand-final, he would not have returned to the field after struggling through the first 45 minutes.

Farina took anti-inflammatory tablets before the final but was unable to go the 90 minutes, leaving the game six minutes before the end, knowing his job had been done.

At one stage in the game after what looked like a harmless stab at the ball, Farina appeared to be in some trouble with a calf injury.

In recent weeks Farina had been battling a hamstring injury associated with some inflammation around a disc in his lower back.

Farina was confident Brisbane could rebuild next season despite several players either leaving or retiring, including captain Alan Hunter who is joining new club Carlton.

The euphoria of victory and an unfinished goal however is likely to keep veteran striker and former Apia product Rod Brown, who kicked Brisbane's other goal, going for another season.

Brown, who is two goals short of becoming the NSL's all-time leading goal scorer with 131 goals, indicated he would back up again next season with Brisbane.

It was the sweetest victory of all, particularly for former Australian Soccer Federation boss and Strikers chairman Ian Brusasco, with the match played in front of a league and Australian club record crowd of 40,446.

The crowd figure easily bettered the code's previous best attendance when 26,352 fans turned out to watch Sydney Olympic beat Marconi at Parramatta Stadium in the 1990 grand final.

And it was fitting that the new mark was set outside the perceived soccer hub of Sydney and Melbourne in the 20th anniversary of the national league kicking off in 1977.

Both Farina, his assistant Peter Tokesi and Hunter said the result and the attendance marked the greatest event for Queensland and Australian soccer.

The Strikers, with huge parochial crowd support, humbled the Socceroo-studded United and sent a reminder to Socceroo coach Terry Venables, who was at the ground.

A gamble by Sydney United coach Branko Culina to replace midfielder Robert Trajkovski with his son Jason midway through the second half proved costly with the Strikers bagging their second goal just six minutes after the change.

Farina again played a vital role, winning a tackle in his own box which paved the way for a Strikers' counterattack down the right by former Socceroo Sean Cranney.

Cranney, one of the speediest flankers in the game sent in a perfect cross for sharpshooter Rod Brown to notch up the 131st goal of his national league career.

The Strikers almost caused a sensation from the opening whistle of referee Simon Micallef with Kalac called on to produce a brilliant diving save off a blistering left-foot strike from Hews inside the first minute.

The opening 15 minute midfield battle was won narrowly by the Strikers, until Glen Gwynne was injured in a tackle and clutched at his hamstring.

Gwynne, given the role of blotting out Sydney United midfielder Kresimir Marusic, dropped off in intensity until halftime, allowing the visitors to graft their way back into the game.

Farina, who was unaware of Gwynne's injury after the game, singled out the former north Queensland junior, as one of his side's best.

However few could deny skipper Alan Hunter, playing his last game for the club before he heads south to captain Carlton next year, was a worthy man of the match just ahead of Hews and goalkeeper Clint Bolton.

Bolton was never tested with one shot on goal but dominated in the air denying several dangerous crosses from the flanks.

The crowd figure exceded that for both the AFL (Brisbane Lions v Geelong) and rugby league (Brisbane Broncos v North Queensland) games played in the same city combined with those games drawing a combined 33,995 attendance.

Both Farina, his assistant Peter Tokesi and Hunter said the result and the attendance marked the greatest event for Queensland and Australian soccer.

"We've shown the way for other clubs like Perth, that grand finals can be won outside of Sydney or Melbourne," said Hunter, the only survivor from the now defunct Brisbane United side which entered the league six years ago.

Farina praised his side for a superb team effort.

"The first half was what we expected. It was a tough battle," said Farina, who finished with a yellow card after several clashes with Paul Bilokapic.

"They had a bit more possession than we did but they didn't create one chance.

"We could have scored in the first minute but it was a great save by Kalac.

"I didn't think we adjusted too well in the first half but in the second half we started getting the ball more into our feet."

Culina had no complaints.

"It was a great day for soccer. We didn't play as well as we can and Brisbane were hungrier and wanted to win more," Curlina said.

"It's a pity we couldn't do the double but take no credit away from the Strikers, they were the better side on the day.

"The whole of Australia wanted them to win and they deserved to."

Sydney United had only two scoring chances in the second half.

The first in the 63rd minute, when midfielder Aytek Genc blasted a poor clearance from Strikers defender Craig Williams sky high, and later seven minutes from time when deadly striker David Zdrilic headed a Culina cross over the crossbar.

AUSTRALIA'S opening match of the US Women's Cup sees them go up against Italy this weekend.

The nations have never met before at international level, and Greg Brown's Aussies will have a job on their hands.

The Italians are in the process of rebuilding in the lead-up to next month's European Championship finals tournament.

They finished sixth in the inaugural World Cup in 1991, but Italy failed to qualify for the 1995 World Cup.

The Americans kick off the tournament with a match against the Canadians in Connecticut, while the Aussies go up against Italy at Grand Field in Salem, New Hampshire.

Meanwhile, former NSW and Marconi star Traci Bartlett received a last minute call up into the Australian team before they flew to the United States.

Japan-based professional Cheryl Salisbury returned home with a hamstring strain and was ruled unfit to tour.

Coach Brown had brought the now Canberra-based Bartlett into the team training camp as a standby.

Bartlett, like Anissa Tasnn-Darby, found herself out of the picture after the 1995 World Cup.

Her move to Canberra at the end of last year saw her join the ACT's ITC squad and the opportunity to play in the national league.

In other changes, Brown promoted under 21 Amy Wilson and Kristy Dugamanov to the senior squad to make the full tour.

The Waratah Shield is underway with the WSL clubs boosted by entries from six local teams.

The knockout competition has also seen entries from the Gladesville-Hornsby district, Blacktown-Nepean and Manly reporesentative teams.

Under the present seeding system WSL second division clubs will battle it out from the second round, with the first division not coming into the picture under the fourth round.

The final is set down as a midweek fixture on September 3, after the WSL grand final.

TEAM TALK

With Dave Cooper and Peter Kogoy

Macarthur's goalkeeper and captain David Hayes will be out of action for about the next three weeks after succumbing to a groin injury. Hayes has been very reliable between the sticks for the Rams since they were promoted to the Super League. However his replacement in the side Chris Duffett performed very well against Leichhardt and seemed to lift the Rams defence knowing they had confidence in their keeper.

Scott Houghton will be out of action for a least a few weeks after going down with a hamstring injury against the Tigers. The extent of the injury won't be revealed until later in the week but he certainly looked in trouble when he went down.

* Bankstown City have signed on loan promising young Marconi striker Nick Bosevski. Bosevski had a short stint with the Lions last year and will team up with Scott Baillie to lead the Lions attack which coach David Mijalkov was a little worried about.

With Bosevski coming across to the Lions, Ozcan Celik has been released to Auburn United on a free clearance. Celik had three seasons with the Lions after top scoring in the 1st Division with Auburn in 1993. However he never lived up to that potential and continually found himself in an out of the side.

* Blacktown have lost Sarkis Boudaher for the rest of the season. Boudaher has been troubled by a hamstring since the pre-season which has also resulted in some other niggling injuries which has ruled him out for the year.

* Parramatta recent signing George Haniotis was married a few weeks back. Haniotis moved back to Sydney after playing for West Adelaide for a number of seasons.

OZZIE NEWS

* Les Scheinflug has decided on the make up for the Young Socceroos squad that flew out this week to contest the World Youth Championships in Malaysia in June.

The squad is: Danny Milosevic and Hayden Foxe (Arminia - Germany), P Zois, Con Blatsis, T Baser, Bill Damianos, Michael Curcija and Daniel Allsopp (Sth Melbourne), S Sinozic (Wollongong City), S Colosimo (AIS), Ivan Zelic and Brett Emerton (UTS Olympic), Vince Grella (Carlton), Kasey Wehrman (Brisbane), Mark Robertson and Yane Talcevski (Marconi), Lucas Neill (Millwall - England), K Salapasidis (Adelaide City).

Players on standby - Clayton Zane (Newcastle), Wayne Knipe (Brisbane), Carlos Gonzalez and Ralph Bove (UTS Olympic), M Pirone (Adelaide City), Nicholas Wilde (West Adelaide).

The squad was rocked by the news that star player Harry Kewell from Leeds United had to withdraw after suffering ankle ligament damage. Kewell already capped at full international level was the feather in Scheinflug's cap but his absence has left a big hole that will be hard to fill.

Soccer booted a resounding goal against its sporting rivals in Brisbane with a record crowd watching its grand final.

But only time will tell whether it was a winning goal for the "sleeping" sport or merely the hype of the occasion which made soccer king for a day.

On the same day as the city's sporting pride and joy, the Brisbane Broncos, played in front of their lowest ANZ Stadium crowd of 14,167 and popular AFL team the Lions drew 19,828 at the Gabba, soccer easily beat the combined total with a record-breaking crowd of 40,446 at Suncorp Stadium.

It was the biggest turnout to a club game in Australia, easily eclipsing the NSL's previous attendance record of 26,352 who saw the 1990 grand final at Parramatta Stadium.

And it was also 10,000 more than the Australian club record crowd of 30,158 which watched the Jim Kelly-coached South Coast United beat APIA 3-1 in the grand final at the old Sydney Sportsground in 1963.

The atmosphere and anticipation more than matched big rugby league games played at the Brisbane ground.

Interest now switches to the Superstars of Soccer series at Parramatta Stadium next Wednesday where Terry Venables has one last look at our foreign and locally-based players before naming his squad for the first leg of the Oceania World Cup qualifying games.

The Socceroos open their campaign on what we all hope will lead to France next year against the Solomon Islands at Parramatta Stadium on June 11.

Two days later they tackle Tahiti before the process is repeated.

Here's is a golden opportunity to go along and see the likes of Mark Bosnich, Robbie Slater, Aurelio Vidmar, brother Tony and Mark Viduka.
